I. Agenda

This retreat, held at Briarcrest Country Club, was to further develop the overall framework for the new St. Andrew's strategy and to define the schedule, format, and leadership responsibilities among the Vestry for the revised strategy. The agenda is found in attachment 1.

II. Communications: The notes from this retreat will be published on the St. Andrew's website and through other media for ongoing transparency for the parish.

III. Review of the Results of the MMR

The results of the recent MMR were reviewed to develop any revisions or additions of the results as they pertain to the further development of the strategy. In general, the Vestry found the focus areas from this review to be comprehensive and appropriate as inputs to the planning process. The following modifications were made.

- a. The vision statement should more explicitly include intentions on outreach
- b. To make the focus areas (goals) more comparable in scope, the a new overall goal – Adaptive Ministries was adopted to include:
 - i. Hispanic
 - ii. GLBT
 - iii. Other focus areas as needed – perhaps including studentsThese areas are to be developed by separate groups but combined under one heading in the strategy. Leadership for the Hispanic and GLBT are Cliff Tice and Jim Kracht respectively.

IV. Comparison of Major Goals of Previous and Current Planning:

- a. Historical Review: Jim Kracht and Fr. Sean with assistance by Wayne Etter are developing a summary of the previous strategies and a linkage between the major elements of these documents with the structure of the current planning activity. Substantial continuity exists as plans have evolved over the years. The new plan is emerging in the context of the current internal and external environments of the parish and will reflect a fresh vision for many ongoing efforts.
- b. Accomplishments: This part of the strategy will include a review of the accomplishments that were defined in the previous strategies developed in the 2004 – 2007 timeframe. It is being developed by Jim Kracht, Neville Clarke, and Fr. Sean. A summary of the evolution of planning in recent years is found as Attachment 2 is a summary of this evolution.

V. Focus Areas (Major Goals) and Vestry/Staff Leadership, Including Consolidation of Themes

The assignments of Vestry leadership were reviewed, including the involvement of new candidate vestry members. This revised table also reflects the consolidation of topics under a common theme to create consistent scope of themes across the plan. Three cross cutting themes are defined. They involve considerations affecting all the other themes and will be developed as integrated transcending plans. They include: (1) current and future facility needs, (2) Financial and capital and (3) Operations. The leaders of the first two crosscutting themes will participate with the Rector in the developing the Operations plan. These plans will be developed late in the schedule for individual focus area plans and draw on them for overarching implications and resource needs.

Kathleen Phillips and Jim Kracht developed a list of parish members for theme leaders to consider in the inviting four or five members to participate in the development of the plan for each major theme. This list is provided as an attachment to the message transmitting these notes to Vestry members and other participants. Through this mechanism, the Vestry seeks to have broader initial and ongoing contributions and involvement of parish members in the plan and its future application. Theme leaders will move immediately to enlist parish members for their themes or goals.

The following table shows the updated leadership assignments for the major focus areas of the plan

Focus Areas	Leadership
Overall strategic plan	Neville Clarke
Communication	Chuck Glenewinkel

Operations	Sean Cox (cross cutting) Leaders of other cross cutting themes Roland Searcy Donna Pohl

VI. Review and Discussion of Planning Methodologies and Schedule

a. Schedule for Development of the Plan

Attachment 3 shows the schedule for development of the new strategy. Inputs from individual focus groups are due on November 4, 2011. A draft of the plan is scheduled to be delivered to parish members on November 22, 2011, followed by another meeting of the Parish on November 30, 2011. Parish inputs will be solicited before, during, and after the parish meeting. The current goal is to respond to these inputs and prepare a final draft of the plan by December 10, 2011.

b. Format and Content of the Revised Strategy – Including Focus Group Inputs.

Attachment 4 provides an outline of the revised strategy. The major elements are:

- i. Historical review
- ii. Comparison of major goals to previous strategies
- iii. Inventory of current ministries and committees
- iv. Overarching strategic statements
- v. Individual goal statements (specific outcomes and actions)
- vi. Cross cutting areas
- vii. Aggregation to the full strategic plan

c. Length of Strategy and individual focus areas (goal statements): As a matter of general guidance, the overall strategy should be a document of the order of 25 pages in length. Each of the eleven focus areas (goals) should be not be longer than approximately two pages. Some general parts of the strategy may be placed as appendices to the plan if space becomes an issue.

d. Procedures for Individual Goal Statements

- i. Each of the major focus areas shown in the previous table will have a section in the plan. One or more members of the vestry will lead a small group of parishioners in the development of plans for the future focus areas.
- ii. Focus groups will review the MMR report once again for findings relevant to their focus area
- iii. Vestry leaders of the focus groups will identify the parish members as soon as possible that are to be recruited to participate in the deliberations of the group.
- iv. A schedule of focus group meetings will be developed and announcements will be made in various communication venues of St. Andrew's, inviting any interested parish member to participate in the meetings.

- v. Fr. Sean, Jim Kracht, and Kathleen Phillips are preparing a current list of all active committees and ministries. This list will identify the activity, its main purpose, status of activity, and responsible person. This list will be used to identify current contributors to the activities identified in the individual focus areas. This forms a point of departure for linking currently active parishioners and staff to the new plan.
- e. Format for Individual Goal Statements: The following format was discussed and agreed and will be consistently used for each of these planning elements:
- i. Title: carefully crafted descriptive title that conveys the intent and scope of the focus area (goal)
 - ii. Goal Statement: a concise outcome oriented overall statement of the goal to be achieved for the focus area. The goal may be related to previous goals in previous strategies, if appropriate.
 - iii. Objectives
 - 1. For each goal or focus area, three to (not more than) five directly related objective statements will be developed. These statements are the essence of the plan and will be used in guiding the ongoing actions taken by the Vestry, Rector, and ministries to implement the plan. Each objective statement should contain the following:
 - a. Objective statement: a quantitative actionable statement of what is to be accomplished. This should be stated in outcome oriented terms that can be measured and evaluated.
 - b. Major milestones for the next five years – these should be related to expected outcomes and should also be stated in terms that can be measured and evaluated
 - c. Related current committees and ministries: - from the above list, focus groups will identify the ministries, committees, and parish parts responsible for implementing the objective.
 - d. Key assumptions: identify the human, financial, and physical plant resources needed to achieve the objective
 - e. Identify by title (reference) relationships to other objectives and goals in the plan.
- f. Development of general sections of the strategy and aggregation of individual focus areas (goal statements) to prepare the draft of the overall strategy: Neville Clarke, Jim Kracht, Kathleen Phillips, and Fr. Sean, in ongoing consultation with the Vestry, will develop the general statements for the new strategy (see Attachment 4) in parallel with the development of the individual focus group plans. This will be part of the overall schedule of development shown in Attachment 3.

Format and Content of Focus Group Inputs St. Andrew's Strategic Plan 2011

This working document was modified during the retreat – the body of this report contains the current and more detailed guidance as agreed in the retreat

- I. Historical review of previous plan
 - a. Methodology and evolution
 - b. Major elements of current strategy
 - c. Accomplishments – link with last plan

- II. Comparison of major goals of previous and current planning
 - a. Develop a common level of aggregation between the two plans
 - b. Compare the previous and current thinking and develop a structure to demonstrate continuity – a side-by-side portrayal
 - c. This is done at the overall level – above individual goal descriptions
 - d. What is new and what is continuing

- III. Finalize the major goals (focus areas) and vestry leadership – vestry retreat

- IV. Inventory current ministries and committees and aggregate them under the major goals of the current plan – what are we already doing

- V. Overarching strategic statements – reviewed and updated – build on MMR results – including evaluation of current future state goals
 - a. Vision statement
 - b. Mission Statement
 - c. Core values
 - d. Overarching factors affecting the future state of the parish
 - i. Internal and external environments
 - ii. Expected changes in membership and structure
 - iii. Resources outlook
 - iv. Transitional status – pastoral vs. program configuration

- VI. Individual Goal Statements
See notes in the body of this document for more detail on procedures and format

- a. Concise outcome oriented statement of goal – may be transcending over time from previous to current plan
 - b. Objectives – extends the above overarching goal to actionable objectives – 3-5 per goal
 - i. Quantitative actionable statement of what is to be accomplished
 - ii. Stated in outcome oriented terms that can be measured and evaluated
 - iii. Propose major milestones over five years
 - iv. Identify the component parts of the parish responsible for action
 - v. Show how established ministries and committees fit into the new plan
 - vi. Key assumptions – what resources are required, what relationship to other objectives and goals in the new plan
- VII. Cross Cutting Areas
- a. Fiscal – financial plan that aggregates across other goals and objectives
 - b. Facilities utilization – how will existing and future facilities be used in meeting the goals and objectives of the plan. This is on use as opposed to operation of the facilities. It can include planning for future expansion – drawing on previous planning if appropriate
- VIII. Aggregation and synthesis of overall goals and objectives
- a. Aggregation of inputs from individual planning groups for goals and objectives under the agreed structure of the plan (vestry retreat)
 - b. Analysis of interacting components and development of cross-walks as needed
 - c. Cross cutting areas under item VII above
