

Suggested Form for Wills

A bequest in your will might be the perfect way to help fund future church ministries, and can take the form of a set amount of money, a percentage of an estate, a specific asset, a trust, or the naming of the church as a contingent beneficiary.

Sample language for including the church in your will might be:

“I give, devise, and bequeath (state amount, description of gift, or a percentage of the estate) to: Saint Andrew’s Episcopal Church, 217 West 26th Street, Bryan, Texas 77803.”
